

WEINSTEIN

WHOLESALE MEATS, INC.

DECADES OF SUCCESS THROUGH
DAYS OF HARD WORK.

Providing Weinstein Wholesale Meat, Inc. customers with the finest beef, pork, poultry, lamb, and veal products has been our priority since day one. Over the years, our commitment to listening to the customer and delivering what the customer wants has contributed to our success. Today, Weinstein Wholesale Meat, Inc. is a full-service distributor of beef, pork and poultry along with being a licensed Certified Angus Beef® distributor. Our products are received in every Midwestern state as well as several major hubs in the southern and eastern United States.

As a full-service protein provider, Weinstein is equipped to service a varied customer base of wholesale, retail, and foodservice companies. Our resolve to “never say no” and “do whatever it takes” attitude have been the traits that set us apart from our competitors, and keeps bringing our loyal customers back – order after order, year after year.

From the country’s largest wholesalers and buying co-ops, to the Mom & Pop stores on Main St. U.S.A., Weinstein Wholesale Meat, Inc. has the capacity to service all of your needs.

“Listen to the customer and deliver what the customer wants.”

This simple concept has guided our business philosophy for over 50 years. We pride ourselves on the quality and artisan craftsmanship of all our products. Weinstein Wholesale Meats, Inc. takes great care to listen to the unique specifications of each customer to make sure the finished product is customized to their specific needs.

Our philosophy extends to our cutting and private label services. Customers can trust that any cut product or customized item has gone through a rigorous procurement and inspection process. Our standards for quality and excellence ensure our customers that they are receiving a superior product with every order.
